Murder Most Musical

MURDER MAESTRO PLEASE.

The only Musical Mystery that composes original songs to fit the occasion. We do it by combining a scintillating whodunit with a talented group of Actor/singers who bring out the best in your people. Killer entertainment!

From the beginning of your event right through the end of your function, these entertainers will keep your guests guessing, "Who Dunit". Comprised of 4 actors plus a pianist to provide 'live' music, this troupe begins to lay the groundwork for the mystery right from the get go. As your guests arrive, they set the tone of their characters and start to play out the scenario written for your event. Customized songs, sung by the actors are spread out over the night. At any time the gang may burst into song. But is it just a song or a cleverly disguised clue?

Early on, the first Murder is committed and a few clues are left behind. Our Chief Detective will lead the investigation, providing your teams with the information.

Another murder is committed and more clues are found.

Who did it? Why? How?

All of this must be ascertained before the night is over.

Each team is given an opportunity to provide the answers.

The team closest to the truth wins the grand prize.

Those farthest from it are sent back to the Detective Academy.

WE PUT THE FUN IN YOUR FUNCTION!

"Because your events are serious business and the success of your event is our business!"
