The Poynters

The Magic of Ken and Barbi

From Cruise ships to Conventions this Duo has been entertaining audiences. They have been featured in film and stage and are regularly sought after by numerous Ontario Resorts to appear during the peak seasons.

You may have experienced The Poynter's at Ontario Place, The Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto's "A Little Night Magic" or the Limelight Dinner Theatre.

For over 20 years Ken has been amazing audiences with his increasingly mysterious innovations of a successful magic career inspired in childhood.

Twelve years ago he found his new apprentice, Barbi, and soon the company was officially made a team effort.

Together this spellbinding couple continues to dazzle audiences. They have performed on various television shows and were featured in a Barbra Streisand-produced movie made for HBO and Showtime. A full-scale Vegas styled review called "Simply Magic" was produced around Ken and Barbi which completed an 8-month tour of theatres and resorts

So sit back, relax and enjoy....
